May Week Celebrations 1991

DATE: 1991-04-14

The Guyana Trades Union Congress has organized a number of activities to mark May Week 1991. While all events planned for this occasion are important to Public Servants, I set out below details of the two (2) major ones.

- (a) May Week Celebrations commence with a Wreath Laying Ceremony at the statue of the late Hubert Nathaniel Critchlow in the Parliament Buildings Compound to be held on Sunday, April 21, 1991 at 16:30 hours. There will be speeches at this ceremony at which affiliates of the Guyana Trades Union Congress and other representative organizations will lay floral tributes.
 - (b) The Worker's Day Parade and Rally will be held on May Day, Wednesday, May 1, 1991. The Parade which will assemble at Independence Park (opposite Promenade Gardens) at 07:30 hours comprises a route march through the streets of Georgetown leading to the National Park where the Rally will be held. Public Servants are asked to march behind the banners of their respective unions.
2. Please bring the contents of this circular to the attention of all workers in your organization and encourage them to fully participate in the above-mentioned events.
